Welcome to our AUGUST ISSUE 2024 monthly newsletter

Well, the leaves are slowly falling in our gardens and the apples are dropping making Autumn feel not too far away. It's a pity that we have not had the summer we were all hoping for – fingers crossed the last Bank holiday Monday this year is something special for us to enjoy plus an Indian summer during September!

NEWS IN BRIEF

- We had Sandra from the market stall selling her scarves and Jewellery, this went down a treat with the ladies
- August has/will be another busy month for birthdays for residents and staff alike
- Answers to the puzzles in last months newsletter are :

The unusual pattern of the 5 words - they were all in alphabetical order

The two countries that needed swapping were Thailand and Ethiopia and that would make the spelling of the countries first letters as CORRECT - the clue was in the question!

- We have recently had new carpet fitted in the corridors at Castle House - it was a disturbance for a short while but we are back to normal now
- On our front cover page is Mary sitting outside in the sunshine - pretty as a picture between the flower tubs
- On the 22nd August we are having a sumptuous buffet and entertainment to celebrate Mary's and Jim's birthdays
